Pres. Roberts To be Honored

Educators, Students, Civic Heads to Join Big Decennial Dinner

Civic leaders and students will join with leading educators of the Pacific Coast to honor Dr. Alexander C. Roberts on the completion of his tenth year as leader of San Francisco State College. The tribute will be in the form of a Decennial Dinner to be given April 1 at the Western Women's Club.

Walter F. Dexter, state superintendent of public education, will unite with Mayor Angelo Rossi; Dean W. W. Kemp, University of California; Dr. William Proctor, Stanford; and Father Harold Ring, president of the University of San Francisco, in recognition of the efforts of Dr. Roberts in the field of education.

Dr. Edna L. Barney will be the toastmaster of the evening. The program of entertainment includes a sketch of the 10 year period in the history of the college, songs by Stephen Lehmer, and a solo dance by Miss Alice Wilson.

The dinner is being sponsored by the Alumni Association, Patron's Association, and faculty and student body of the college. Mrs. S. Ruth Witt-Diamant is general chairman. Tickets are on sale to the general public at $1.50 per plate and to the students at $1.25 per plate.

Western Music Convention Holds Final Sessions

Today marks the last day of a three-day convention and entertainment of over six hundred high school students from all parts of the state. Some registered as far north as Dunsmuir and there are many representatives from other sections of the state. The Music Federation committee has managed all events of the convention and entertained the guests.

This convention is a bi-annual event and is the first to be given at this college in ten years.

Varsity Varieties To Be Presented Again

San Francisco State will again play host to the radio fans of the state when it presents the second edition of Varsity Varieties over the California Radio System. The program will be released locally by KYA, Friday night at 9:30.

Helen Louise Cox, soprano, will again be the singing star of the program, unless she is called south to the finals of the California's Hour. Audience reaction has termed her one of the finest of coming singers.

Will Smith, former editor of the Golden Gater, will again have the role of Master of Ceremonies. Studio heads have declared that Smith was perfectly cast in the role and needs only practice to improve his microphone style.

He will be bothered by his lady Friday, or Sarita Canedo, who played the part of his heckler. Also listed on the program will be another attempt to make Scoop McGee Write Again.

The other vocalists and featured stars had not been named as this went to press.

Strategy Committee Urges Passage of Bill; Meets Ways and Means Committee Today

San Francisco State's need for a new campus will be stressed, as Strategy committee members present their case to the Ways and Means Committee of the State Assembly today. Records of the past ten years will be utilized to show the actual needs of the college.

"This is just one step in the campaign," declared Edward Cockrum, student body president and head of the strategy committee, " but it is an important step. We must convince the Ways and Means committee members that this appropriation of $2,380,000 is vital to the welfare of San Francisco State College. It is this group that will be an imposing factor in the moulding of the form of bill to be presented to the fioor of the Assembly."

The bill is being sponsored by the entire San Francisco delegation to the assembly. It calls for an appropriation of $2,380,000 for the rebuilding of the campus of the college. Ray Williamson assemblyman from San Francisco has promised a strong fight for the appropriation. "You can be assured," he said, "that the entire San Francisco delegation is behind the measure."

Lens Snappers Are Glorified

Lens snappers will be glorified today as the High Freshman class photography contest gets under way. The contest will be open to anybody and entries must be received by the High Freshman committee on or before March 31. All pictures must be taken today.

Prizes include cash and merchandise, with an Eastman Kodak Co. prize slated to go to some outstanding picture. There will be a special prize to the high freshman taking the best picture of his class.

Only one rule is being made. No high speed lens camera and no professional cameras will be allowed. Only home kodaks and brownie cameras will be allowed. Judges in the competition are Mr. Leo C. Nee, Harold Martin and Bill Ferem.

Pictures will be judged on the following classifications: quality; clearness; subject matter; and general characteristics. All pictures will become the property of the Franciscan and may be incorporated into special panels in the book.

Details of the contest may be secured from Bill Ferem, or any member of the High Freshman class, or in the Publications Office, room 114. Pictures may be handed in to Ferem, or to the Franciscan for forwarding to the judges.

Morely Carrothers Plans Soph Shuffle

"The Sophomore class is not only sponsoring the Low Soph Shuffle on the evening of March 24, but they are also sponsoring the Noon Day Dance to be held on the same day, thus creating a 'Low Sophomore Day' on the campus," said Morley Carrothers, when asked about the plans for the Low Sophomore Dance.

When Harold Chandler was interviewed by the Gater reporter, he said, "In Milton Frank we have obtained an orchestra that will insure everyone present an excellent time."

It has been planned that some special feature will be presented during the dance intermission. The tickets for this affair will be on sale at the door for those who haven't already obtained them. The price will be 50c a couple and 25c for stags.

Hold Regular Meeting

Members of the Westminster Club are to be reminded of the regular meeting to be held at noon today at Westminster Center, Page and Webster. Lunches are to be brought and coffee will be served. The meeting is to be a discussion and business will be attended to in the form of committee appointments. President Bob Prather urges all members to please attend.

Pageantry Promised As Big Exposition Lends Exhibits—Aids

By Will Smith

Machinery set up by Alpha Phi Gamma for their coming Intercollegiate World's Fair had assumed major proportions, according to committee heads making the statement last Monday. Chairmen on the different departments of activity had all made reports at the last meeting of the fraternity.

Will Smith had a cheerful statement to make when contacted by the Gater representative about arrangements for the coming event. "We will definitely have the two costumed Pirate Girls of the Golden Gate Exposition to act as official hostesses and cup awarders. Exposition officials will cooperate with us in every way possible on the matter of publicity and stunts. They have already given us many novel ideas which we are working out, and we expect to get more."

The international relay race which will take place on the center oval is already being organized and is under the chairmanship of Wallace Gallagher. Dick Davis, former State track star and present book store manager, is organizing a trans-city torch relay which will be widely publicized in the local papers and which will be the opening event of the April 5th event.

A beauty contest to select the San Francisco representative to the 1939 Exposition will be held with the Exposition officials acting as judges on the night of the Fair. To qualfy it is necessary to get 100 signatures of State students. Further information can be had from Will Smith or Bob Chamberlin.

Advisory Announces Sub-Committee Heads

Sub-committee chairmen for Advisory Council were announced this week as plans for a coordinated Registration Week go into final form.

Committee chairmen are as follows: General Chairman, Eleanor Messenger; Information, Dorothy Lavalle; Gym, Erile Long; Counter and Files, Dorothy Ayling; Distribution, Betty Creon; Traffic, Guido Fumigalli.

According to those in charge the procedure will follow that of last year save for a few minor changes suggested by the committee of last spring.

Cap't Bud's Rowboat Pulls Into Port

By Bud Decker

Toot-toot, here comes the row-boat with Cap'n Bud Decker at the helm. It rounds the bend and docks at Frederick Burk auditorium, Friday, April 30, at 8:15 p. m.; lifting anchor at 10:30 p. m.; docking again the following eve. Featuring the finest of river and merriest of dark-town punsters the show will incorporate some of the finest acts ever witnessed on the State campus.

As a special enticement the auditorium will be enlarged to seat over 500 for each evening. The show should be especially well attended due to the fact that all proceeds will be used to finance the annual. Last year at the Amateur Show all State attendance records were broken for the same benefit, and this annum, twice the former crowd is anticipated.

There is still an opportunity to join this show in the chorus and space for one more solo act. Merely drop a note in Director Decker's box, 1193, and the part is yours.

Vernon Reese and Prexy Ed Cockrum will act as end men, with Cap'n Bud as interlocutor. The chorus, 25 strong, mixed black and whites, together with the principals, goes into rehearsal April 5. Featured talent will be Audrey Stewart, Nadda Lawrence, Helen Cox; Jailbird Quartet; Phil Ford, Jack Martens, Lee Scarlett; Clarice Dechent and Olga Johnson.

Newman Club Plans Semi-Formal Dance

"The Palace Hotel will be the setting for the Semi-Formal dance which is to be held by the Newman Club on April 9," stated Jack Murphy, president of the Newman Club. This affair will be invitational, and open only to those who have membership cards, and their guests.

On April 1, the Newman Club will hold its first Annual Communion at the St. Mary's Cathedral at Van Ness and O'Farrell, which will be followed by a breakfast for all the members of the party.

International Relations Meet

To consider matters of great importance to the club and to the college in general, a meeting of the International Relations Club will be held today at noon in room 118. All members and interested students are urged to attend.

Participation by the organization in the forthcoming Intercollegiate Miniature World's Fair to be held next April 5 is going to be one of the items in the agenda.

Congratulations to the Music Department . . .

The Golden Gater wishes to commend the Music Federation for its efforts in bringing to our campus the large group of high school students that the recent convention has attracted.

Any activity such as this that brings to the attention of high school students the many advantages of our College is indeed worth while in that it serves to attract persons who may become future members of our student body. Strength lies in numbers, and any increase in the enrollment of the college adds that much more to the benefits that can be derived from it by the individual student.

Our music department rivals only College of Pacific for supremacy in Central California, and through the efforts of the students and faculty such as we have seen displayed in this convention that makes this a reality.

Therefore for our candidate to the College hall of fame this week we name Leon Minear, president of the Music Federation.

Philadelphia, Pa — (ACP) — The satirical "Roosevelt for King" movement, started at Yale University, took an editorial lashing from the University of Pennsylvania's daily paper.

"A rattle-brain scheme to attract publicity" and "in complete disregard for all that constitutes good taste," The Daily Pennsylvanian called it.

The editorial charged Yale and Princeton students with sponsoring a proposal "to make the American college man ridiculous in the eyes of the general public."

The thought of an editorial in the Daily Princetonian about the movement was characterized as "sophomoric," by the Daily Pennsylvanian, and, in tone, "disrespectful of a family which by its very position should command the courtesy of every American."

"We find the Daily Princetonian, rabid supporter of the President in the last election, shifts its allegiance like any adventurer burning to see his name in print," the statement continued.

"Heaven help the American college man if he cannot learn to divert his energies into constructive channels."

Washington U's Daily presents the following discourse on words in the English language:

Take the word "virgin."

Back in the period of classical literature it meant plain neat.

A state of meditation also known as intoxication.

Reluctant to part with one's money. Scotch.

One of a pair, worn by aviators.

A human condition during exciting moments. Tense.

Compressed, squeezed together from either side.

A spot which places the responsibility for the "next move" upon an indicated individual or party.

An editorial remark which means that the business manager has the paper jammed with ads. It means that many things you meant to run aren't printed because they won't fit "typed" words and things you hadn't meant to run are printed because they fit.

Chamberlin's Tripe

By Bob Chamberlin

Senk you very much. we Shirlie do appreciate your criticism. You were kind in your Lidlifter in that you say only that the column surpasses that which is promised by the title.

So we suggest that you suggest some titles . . . perhaps "Gardenias in Garlic" or "Typewriter Ribbin'" or "Babble On," then some wise lug can pen a bitter bit on the "Fall of Babble On" . . . reckon that's nuff!

Lidlifter

March 19, 1937

Dear Lid-Lifter:

This letter is in protest of the column in the Golden Gater entitled Chamberlin's Tripe. It is not a protest of the column itself or of the material therein contained, but it is a sincere protest of the title. I feel that material which is so clearly considered "tripe," both by the writer and the editor, should not appear in the Golden Gater. Or at least I believe that the reader should be the judge of the material after he has read it, without being told beforehand that it is tripe.

From the writings of Mr. Chamberlin which have already appeared, I feel that he is capable of writing an interesting column. I urge, however, the selection of a new name, other than "tripe," as the title.

Sincerely yours,
SHIRLIE SENK

Gael Tennis Squad Dumps Gaters 6—3

English Continues Win Streak in Downing Schuman Twice

Meeting what will probably be his most formidable opponent of the season, Ronnie English, State's No. 1 man, continued his undefeated record by drubbing Dick Schuman of St. Marys, as the Gaels whipped the Gater tennis team, 6 to 3, at the Palace of Fine Arts Saturday. It was State's third straight league defeat.

The Purple's other two wins came when Doug Crary, playing No. 2 in the absence of Billy Hammond, won over Moraga's Dan Deevy, 5-7, 6-1, 6-1, and then English and Crary teamed up to take Schuman and Hooper in the doubles, 6-3, 5-7, 6-3. State lost the other doubles match and the rest of the singles.

The only other place in the match where the Gaters looked even fair was Morrison and Rosen's play in the second set of their match against De Puni and Deevy. Having lost the first set 6-2 and being behind 5-1, match point for the St. Marys team, the Gaters forced their opponents to win at 8-6.

English, in winning from the Moraga ace 6-1, 6-4, was never pressed, and at times had Schuman so completely in hand that the Gael appeared to have given up. Ronnie played cleverly to Schuman's backhand, which was weak, and although his opponent had a powerful service, was aced only twice.

Of the twenty-two games played in the whole match, State won but six.

Summary

Singles: English, S, d. Schuman, SM, 6-1, 6-4; Crary, S, d. Deevy, SM, 5-7, 6-1, 6-1; Hooper, SM, d. Kavanaugh, S, 6-2, 6-4; Taira, SM, d. Carson, S, 6-4, 6-2; DePuni, SM, d. Morrison, S, 6-1, 6-4; Taay, SM, d. Rosen, S, 6-2, 6-4.

Doubles: English-Crary, S, d. Schuman-Hooper, SM, 6-3, 5-7, 6-3; DePuni-Deevy, SM, d. Rosen-Morrison, S, 6-2, 8-6; Taay-Taira, SM, d. McGuire-Vogulkin, S, 7-5, 6-2.

"I Won't Go Nuts," Say Sports Managers As Rain Continues

Rain, rain, rain, and rain. Little itsy-bitsy drops that tumble care-free and happy to the earth. Minute pellets of water that are innocent enough singularly but collectively they bring havoc and destruction on the heads of coaches, athletic managers, squads, and schedules.

On close examination, the tiny globules do not seem at all imposing, yet the evidence of their after-effects strips the raindrop of its shroud of innocence and leaves it bare to an eye for truth.

For instance, Manager Dave Schutz of the Gater baseball squad is walking around muttering to himself, "I won't go nuts, I won't go crazy, I won't go nuts." However, if one listens closely, a note of mistaken self-assurance can be detected in Dave's voice.

Coach Dave Cox has been working with his track and field aggregation for nearly a month and still doesn't know what the squad can do in inter-collegiate competition. The ceaseless beat of rain is giving the Head Man plenty of incentive to go ground-hog hunting.

Hal Harden has a surplus of guys with more than a little ability at swinging a bat ready to toss at an array of rival chuckers. Little drops of water has kept the husky sluggers on the shelves for two weeks.

And so the story goes. Tiny pellets of falling moisture are turning a well-balanced spring athletic program into a series of cancelled contests. Coaches have teams, good teams, forced to idleness.

But "It's an ill wind that blows no good". Both the baseball team and track squad are undefeated to date.

Sluggers Train for Block "S" Sport Nite

Under the able direction of George Paiva, Maurie (Muscles) Schwartz, and President George Bogdanoff the third annual Block "S" Boxing Show is developing. The date of the affair will be Thursday, April 22. It will be held in the gym and a small charge will be made.

The idea this year is to get all fellows from school to participate, if this is impossible talent will be imported from the S. F. J. C. and San Mateo J. C. Both of these schools have asked to be represented. However, the idea at the present time is to have all State talent with many celebrities acting as referees. There will not be any intra-mural boxing this term so anyone that is interested in getting in these bouts should see one of the three chairmen of the show.

With the memories of last year's show, this one should be the best ever. A tangle between Plutte and Ryan would be a good rematch, and a rematch between "Muscles" Schwartz and "Sad Sam" Goldstein would bring them in like flies around honey. So, if you aren't doing anything on April 24th, drop in at the gym and see some good sluggin'.

Matches signed by Paiva to date include Ernie Delucchi, Harold Chandler, Tom Thorpe, and Bill Ferem as grunt and groaners supreme. Ken Johnson and Jim Martin have announced their intention to indulge in a little leather pushing.

Before the week is over, Paiva, who will manage and coach the group expects to have an imposing card definitely arranged. Plenty of heavy weights in both boxing and wrestling are available and just who will grace the feature matches will not be known until the list of entries is completed.

Gater Netmen Start Climb From Cellar

Santa Clara and San Francisco State College tennis squads will face each other on the Palace of Fine Arts courts on April 3, with all indications pointing towards another Bronco victory.

Ronnie English, diminutive gent of all-around athletics, has so far proved to be the giant of the State squad. Throughout the season he has been the most consistent point-maker of the squad.

For the top-notch peninsula squad, Dodd and Buckley are the two outstanding threats. In the first matches of the two teams, held a short time ago, Bronco Dodd succumbed to the outstanding performance put on by English. Buckley, however, won the matches in which he participated.

The Gaters are now holding down the bottom position in the newly-formed N. C. I. Tennis League.

TENNIS REACHES QUARTER-FINALS

Delayed last week by an overtime match between L. Carrothers and Charles Martin, the intra-mural tennis matches as arranged under the direction of Manager Jack Hulbert will reach the quarter-finals this week after nearly a month of play.

Carrothers and Martin engaged in a lengthy tussle on the asphalt courts, the former finally beating down his rival but only after 32 games had been played. The score ended 17 to 15.

To date, Gallagher and Kavanaugh have each knocked over three opponents. Others who seem well on their way are Doug Crary and Pena. With weather being favorable, Hulbert expects to wind up the tourney by the first of the month.

Ten teams from various clubs and P.E. classes have signed with Manager Dave Schutz to enter the intra-mural baseball league. A round-robin between five team groups will be held with a three-game playoff between the winners deciding the championship.

Winchell's Advice Used

* * * *

Methinks It Won't Work

By TIM GUINEY

Paragraphing as we ramble around: Some guy in New York named Winchell, who does a little writing now and then, takes time out to give some fatherly advice to his contemporaries among the columnists. Sez he: "You've gotta insult 'em, boy, you've gotta insult 'em. It's the only way to keep on getting material for your column.

"'Cause why? 'Cause how do you expect them to write in and give you hell if you don't do anything to make them mad? Just insult 'em, boy, Then they write in and with the material you get, your column is filled for days to come."

Well, it doesn't sound bad, so why not try it. Maybe I'd just better start the column all over. To wit and gesundheit:

Hello, friends. Let's take time out and review the situation here at good old esseffstate. Now as for the basketball team that just completed its season, I don't want to get personal, or anything, but they really weren't very good. Nope, thinking it over they could have been lots better. (Well, that's not very strong, but we're just getting warmed up.)

For last year's football team: Phooey! For next season's team: Phooey! Phooey To the baseball team, a double snap of the fingers, accompanied by a left-handed sneer. As for the rifle and gun teams, hello fellas. Nice weather, isn't it? Yes, even if it is raining a bit.

Maury Schwarz comes around to tell me he's thinking of going out for track, so from now on my dough goes on the other team to win. Sure, I'll bet a nickel any time. Nothing small about us. As for the tennis team—I take time out to laugh up my sleeve, ha, ha—the boys in the white bloomers have quite a ways to go to catch up with the team of last year.

The golfers—what golfers? you say—are still trying to figure out who they ought to play, and getting nowhere fast. The only redeeming feature of the whole sports situation here on the campus is the various teams that engage in the ping pong battles over by the gym, on the days when old Sol is smiling his heartiest. I always enjoy engaging in a dangerous sport of this type, because of the feeling that you get of "having done something" when the battle is over. The having done something part is all right, but I'll leave you figure out just what.

It sure is disgusting, all right.

* * *

Okay, Louie, print it! And if the mail comes in the way it should, we won't work for a month.

Undefeated Gater Squad To Travel

Tracks Season Might Get Under Way Saturday If No Rain

If old Jupiter Pluvius lets up enough this week, the Gater cinder squad will take on their first collegiate opponents next Saturday away from home. They are scheduled to meet Modesto Jaysee in the city of Modesto. The team, in anticipation of a trip to Modesto, are hopeful that the Modesto track is in better condition than Lake Kezar, which has been a veritable swimming pool for the last few weeks, forcing two postponements of Cal. Aggies meet, and one postponement of a San Jose State meet.

Although the season will have been under way several weeks, many of the State cinder stars have not as yet been put to the acid test of appearing against collegiate opponents in a State suit. Among them are Soc. (not ric) Pantages, shot-putter, Errol Evans, dusky sprinter, Ernest Peninov, hurdler, Jim Hopkins, sprinter, Ed Basset, sprinter, Tommy Thorpe, broad-jumper, Pete Kline, distance man, and Don Baim, runner.

State's squad has so far remained undefeated, untied, and virtually unmet this season. After giving the high school all-stars a sound thumping, the cinder men have been forced to mark time for two weeks, with the exception of the meet of the Jayvees with a local high school, which they took by the slim margin of two points, won in the last event. The weather has really proved a nemesis, forcing the tracksters to train on the old field, which although practically dry, slowed the entire team considerably. So far, State has had no chance to show just how good they were on a good fast track after hard practice. For their first meet the cindermen had only a few days practice.

Santa Rosa Next For Nine — IF

Rained out for the fifth time in nine days, the baseball team supposedly representing State, although it never gets a chance to play, is slated to meet Santa Rosa Junior College in a two-game series in Santa Rosa starting tomorrow afternoon.

Providing that Jupe Pluvius quits his crying spell for a while, the nine will pack its bats and embark for the wilds of Marin County for its first and last overnight excursion of the year. Contests have been slated for tomorrow and Friday afternoons. State has already beaten the Bear Cubs 6-3 in the first game of the series played in San Francisco several weeks ago.

Kenny Wilkes will play short and lead off; Joe Lee will start at third, Spider Turner at second, George Bogdanoff at first, Pat Bowers, Dick Osborne, and Hal Wood in the outfield.

Spanish Club To Sponsor Noon Dance

The Spanish Club, at its last regular meeting, worked on plans for the noon dance they are sponsoring here April 28. As yet, they have not definitely decided as to the holding of a public raffle and would appreciate any comments from the students. If the raffle is held, it will probably be some time in the latter part of May, as that is the only open date on the social calendar.

SigmaRhoGammaDinner

Friday night will be "College Night" for members of Sigma Rho Gamma as they are sponsoring a dinner at Haas' Candy Store for members of California Rainbow Girls. March 26, 27, and 28 are convention dates for all members of the order in California and over three thousand girls are expected here to attend the Assembly. Any girl at State College who is interested in attending this dinner may place her reservation by getting in contact with Alice Denhard.

Latin American Culture

Speaking on "Latin American Contributions to American Culture," Mrs. Antonio Sotomayer will be introduced as the next lecturer in the World Tomorrow Lecture Series by the Honorable Mario Santos, Consul of Brazil.

Mrs. Sotomayer's wide experience in her travels through the various Latin American countries and her actual contact with their peoples make her a very qualified speaker on the subject, according to Hon. Santos.

Phi Lambda Chi Holds Initiation

Greeting their new pledges at a buffet dinner, Phi Lambda Chi held its semi-annual initiation last night at the Phi Lambda Chi House. The pledges were entertained by a program put on by several members of the society and afterwards were allowed to enter into the various games that were set up. The evening was concluded by refreshments served by the members.

Jane Wyatt says:

"Luckies are a light smoke my throat approves and my taste prefers"

"I first chose Luckies about five years ago because I had noticed that other actors and actresses seemed to prefer them. I enjoyed Luckies so much I've smoked them ever since. In the new picture, 'Lost Horizon', in which I was Ronald Colman's leading lady, the film ran 36,000 feet—almost 7 miles—before it was cut down. That gives you some idea how much work it was and what a strain it put on my throat. Luckies, I feel, are the obvious cigarette for an actress. They are a light smoke that my throat approves and my taste prefers."

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Miss Wyatt verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. Meet 'N Meet 'N Do Nothing

By Almarie Porteous

Members of the French Club attended the customary meeting yesterday with the well-worn hope that they were about, at last, to really get something accomplished for this semester. They have been trying all year to get their beaming countenances registered on a camera plate of the Franciscan, but it seems that Ole' Man Weather does not want such a calamity to take place, not on this campus at any rate; so-o-o he has done all within his power to prevent it in the form of heavy downpours every Tuesday. What a pity! The members have such lovely faces too.

Bob Chamberlin entertained the group with a descriptive talk on the A. P. G. World's Fair. The members are wondering now just what it was that he said, but at any rate, it must have been worth while, as two of the members fell asleep.

Each member has a different idea as to what the club is doing. For instance, a few weeks ago they decided on a dinner, where it was to be, what time, etc. But what happened? The morning of the day that dinner was to be held a few of the members were notified that someone, no one knows who, felt that a better time would be had if the group went to another restaurant. So they were to please notice that this change had been made. As a result the dinner was a flop and a room was reserved for about sixteen people and only nine were there.
